RONA DELIVERY SERVICE

- Confirm that the delivery address and date as shown on the invoice are correct.
- Confirm that all products, quantities, colours and sizes on the invoice are correct.
- Your order will be delivered on the specified date, however we cannot specify the time.
- Rona's delivery service is "curbside only" which means orders are placed at or near the side or the rear of the truck bed depending on the unit used. Particular trucks cannot be specified. Appliance deliveries do not pertain to curbside only delivery.
- It is the customer's responsibility to provide reasonable access for the truck and adequate area to drop the delivery load safely. Drops behind the home must have alley access and the vehicle must be able to access the alley safely. Rona does not drive over city curbs, on private property, through vacant lots or between houses where landscape damage may occur. Material cannot be hoisted over fences and will not be unloaded onto freshly poured concrete pads.
- Rona delivers as close as possible to the requested spot but, due to equipment or drop site restrictions including power lines, all dump/drop locations are at the discretion of the professional RONA Delivery Driver.
- City bylaws prohibit the placement of materials on public property including sidewalks and streets. Alley deliveries cannot restrict traffic and must be moved by the recipient onto private property immediately.
- Upon delivery, confirm that all products were received and are in good order. Any discrepancies in quantity or quality must be made within 24 hours.
- The customer accepts responsibility for security of the order upon completion of the delivery.
- If authorized, RONA will deliver merchandise to unattended site(s) but RONA is not responsible for any merchandise once it is left at an unattended site.
