CHESTERMERE

From the Office of the Mayor

Proclamation

National Indigenous History Month, June 1 - 30
And National Indigenous People'

WHEREAS: Every June, National Indigenous History Month is a time when Canadians are invited to celebrate the unique histories, culture and diversity of Indigenous peoples in Canada. This month is a time for reflection, education and celebration of the contributions and strengths of Canada's First Nations; and

WHEREAS: National Indigenous People's Day is recognized on June 21st and is historically an important date for First Nations, Inuit and Metis peoples as it marks the summer solstice and the longest day of the year; and

WHEREAS: The City of Chestermere and the Government of Canada recognize the importance of the Truth and Reconciliation Commission's Calls to Action, and our commitment to the Coalition of Inclusive Municipalities; and

WHEREAS: Residents are encouraged to take part in local events and learn more about the history and heritage of Canada's Indigenous communities

NOW THEREFORE, I, Jeff Colvin, Mayor of the City of Chestermere, do hereby proclaim the month of June as Indigenous History Month in the City of Chestermere.

Dated this 21 day of June, 2022

J. Colvin
